From Safety Harbor's New Director, Lisa Kothe:

I am very excited to be appointed Director of the Safety Harbor Public Library and to continue my career in a special community that loves and supports their library. In the past three years as the Head of Adult Services/Reference, I have watched the Library remodel and transform even further into a facility of excellence due to dedicated staff and the vision of our former director.

I am blessed to have had many excellent mentors in my library career from Safety Harbor to the Hillsborough and Clearwater Library systems. I am also fortunate to have had perfect timing changing careers after many years as a vice president in technology and operations with Bank of America. It is said timing is everything, and I have been especially lucky in that respect. I completed my MLIS at USF, while working full time as a contractor for BOA and part-time in the Hillsborough County Library System. Upon completion I was hired at in reference at Clearwater Main Library where I had the best view ever, while working my new dream job. From there, I moved to North Greenwood where I was branch manager, followed by the Beach branch as manager of both Beach and North Greenwood when they were part-time facilities.

My vision is to make Safety Harbor Public Library the best it can be by providing quality programming, cultural events, excellent materials and resources, new technologies and ideas, along with a committed staff who really make the Library what it is; a special place by the bay. Stop by and visit, take a look at our gallery, spend a few minutes, grab a book, newspaper, or magazine and find a comfy chair.

ART @ EAST LAKE SERIES

Award Winning Sculptor Candy Ryan

Reception: Friday, November 25th 6:00 PM, 4125 East Lake Road, Palm Harbor

Whereas someone might just see a hunk of rock, local artist Candy Ryan sees much, much more. "I love carving stone and wood, and bringing to life what is hiding dormant in the uncarved piece," she says. "I sometimes will see the subject immediately when I look at a stone. Then other stones sit in my inventory for awhile until I am ready to see what hides within. I get tremendous joy from creating work."

Ryan has been working for the past decade developing her art career here in Florida. "Since then, I have worked in various places in Florida, and I am currently working at the Sculpture Studio in Clearwater. There is an exciting synergy there because of the creativity shared by the sculptors," she added.

If you would like to see Ryan's sculptures on display, the East Lake Community Library will be hosting her pieces throughout the month of December. A reception will be held Friday, November 25, 2011, starting at 6:00 pm. Enjoy refreshments while discussing and viewing her artwork. This is the third event in the popular ongoing "Art @ East Lake" series. The library is located at 4125 East Lake Road in Palm Harbor. Call (727) 773-2665 for more information.
