In November, the Talking Book Library held its annual Volunteer Recognition Luncheon to honor the dedicated volunteers and book buddies for their service to our agency and library patrons. PPLC Board Members that were in attendance included Judi Burr, Chairperson; Gary Lewis; Janet O'Harrow; and Cecilia Burke. During the year, volunteers provided over 1600 hours to the library.

Bank of America Funding in Pinellas Public Libraries

Through support from the Bank of America Foundation, our public libraries are able to meet the ever-increasing need for teen financial literacy. Students ranging in age from 12 – 18 receive valuable education that prepares them for their economic futures. Libraries support programming that includes information on interviewing skills, resume building, making a good impression with an employer and communicating value as teens seek employment. "Bank of America recognizes that jobs and education play a critical role in advancing economic development, and we continue to look for ways to support innovative programs that help unemployed, underemployed, veterans, youth, and those with disabilities connect with employment success," said Bill Goede, Tampa Bay market president, Bank of America. "The bank's investment in the Pinellas Public Library Cooperative is just one of the ways we are supporting education and workforce development organizations in our community and improving local economies across the country."

Bank of America's commitment to corporate social responsibility (CSR) is a strategic part of doing business globally. Learn more at www.bankofamerica.com/opportunity and follow Bank of America on Twitter at @BoFA_Community.

READ Pinellas Supports Born to Read

The Pinellas Public Library Cooperative's Born to Read program was recently awarded a grant from READ Pinellas to support family literacy programming and materials. READ Pinellas is a literacy organization that strives to assist programs such as Born to Read, and enable families to break the chronic cycle of illiteracy and poverty. These grant funds will support Born to Read families throughout Pinellas County through their public libraries.

The Born to Read program is designed to inform parents about the benefits of reading; to encourage reading by distributing developmentally appropriate books; and to invite families to use their local library and attend a story time with their family. The Born to Read Consultant also provides community outreach programs at health agencies, community partners, and teen parenting classes at local public schools.

Through the support of community partners, Born to Read is able to reach its goal of providing literacy services essential to achievement and success for all members of the family. Children's books, parenting guides and other literacy resources will be purchased with these funds to benefit participating families in the Pinellas community.
