CHECK OUT THE MFA

A PPLC Partnership with the Museum of Fine Arts

Erica McCaleb, PPLC Countywide Services Coordinator

A partnership between the Pinellas Public Library Cooperative's Member Libraries and the Museum of Fine Arts (MFA) is bringing free museum entry to Pinellas County library patrons!

Use YOUR library card, and check out a museum pass to gain free admission to the MFA in St. Petersburg. This exciting partnership affords Pinellas County adults, children and families an opportunity to engage with the MFA's diverse art collection.

The MFA opened to the public in 1965 and boasts an expansive permanent collection that spans over 5,000 years of art history as well as compelling traveling exhibits.

How the museum pass works

- Each PPLC member library and its branches will have two museum passes.
- Passes are available for checkout on a first-come, first-served basis.
- You may check the availability of passes on the PPLC online catalog or by contacting your library's circulation staff.
- Present the receipt from the library to the MFA staff upon entry. MFA will retain the receipt.

Berthe Morisot, Reading (La Lecture), 1888

- Admission is valid for up to 2 adults and three children under the age of 18, in the same household.
- There is a checkout limit of one pass per family. Passes may be checked out by adult cardholders.
- Passes are valid for one visit within the 7-day loan period.

YOUR Pinellas County Libraries look forward to supporting the Museum of Fine Art's long history of excellence in art collection, exhibition, and education. It is the MFA's and PPLC's shared hope that the museum pass program will bring a greater access to high quality museum resources to Pinellas County residents.

A Second Chance with

A high school diploma can be a passport to opportunities such as career advancement, jobs and post-secondary education. For many Pinellas County residents, the absence of a high school diploma can mean a lack of such opportunities. Now, Pinellas County residents, age 19 and over have the opportunity to earn an accredited high school diploma and career certificate online. Four Pinellas County libraries (Largo, Safety Harbor, St. Petersburg, and Tarpon Springs) are participating in the Career Online High School (COHS) program. The program offers a limited number of scholarships to motivated adult learners. For more information, please visit one of the participating libraries in person, or online at: <http://www.pplc.us/ohs.shtml>.

The Career Online High School project is brought to you by the Florida Department of State, Division of Library and Information Services.

The Annual Afternoon with the Author

On November 10, Leper Spy will be the book featured in An Afternoon with an Author; Ben Montgomery back by popular demand.

Who would have ever thought that a lady with leprosy could be a spy for the United States in the Philippines during World War II! And be instrumental in saving hundreds of American lives!

The fascinating story of Joey, the Leper Spy, is a true account of a heroine with leprosy, during World War II as well as events in her life after the war ended. This is the author's second book and due to be out in October 2016.

Ben Montgomery is a feature writer for The Tampa Bay Times. He was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize in local reporting as well as winning the Dart Award and Casey Medal for a series called “For Their Own Good”... about abuse at Florida’s oldest reform school.

Other stories include several features about Doug Hughes, the Gyrocopter pilot who landed on the green grass in front of the U.S. Capitol Building as a protest; also a teen bowler who “found himself on path of perfection toward port’s holy grail”; and a story about influential executive chef Tom Pritchard’s battle with Parkinson’s.

The book will be available for purchase ($27) and signing by the Author before and after the event. A gourmet box lunch from Wildflower Cafe is included as part of the donation fee; there will be drawings for door prizes as well. If you wish to pre-order the book, you can do so at the time you make your reservations.
